Re: United States v. Anton Joseph Lazzaro
Case No. 21-CR-0173(1) (PJS/DTS)

Dear Mr. Lazzaro:

I write in response to your letter of June 8, 2023.

You are represented by counsel and, as I have informed you at least twice in the past, I do not accept pro se motions or memoranda from represented defendants. See United States v. Agofsky, 20 F.3d 866, 872 (8th Cir. 1994) (“There is no constitutional or statutory right to simultaneously proceed pro se and with benefit of counsel.”). Your letter is simply a long legal brief—replete with citations to case law and the trial transcript—arguing that various actions by the prosecutors and various rulings by me were in error.

I will respond to arguments made by your counsel. I will not respond to arguments made in pro se filings.

Sincerely,

s/Patrick J. Schiltz
